

SATURDAY, AUGUST 3, 1745.

Yesterday arriv'd a Mail from Holland, and another from Flanders.

Petersburgh, July 17.

I was on Sunday last, in the Morning, that her Imperial Majesty conferr'd upon the Senator Baron Cedeureutz, Ambassador Extraordinary from the Crown of Sweden, the Order of St. Andrew, which her Imperial Majesty put on with her own Hands; after which he was invited to dine with her Imperial Majesty, and some of the Knights Companions of the Order. The next Day his Excellency had his Audience of Leave, in which he made a most eloquent Oration; to which the Chancellor, Count Bstucheff, answer'd, in the Name of her Imperial Majesty, in Terms the most obliging; and which very plainly shew'd, that never any Publick Minister had more effectually recommended himself to the Favour of the Emperess of all the Russias, than this Swedish Lord, who is return'd Home cover'd with the Marks of her Majesty's Magnificence and Generosity. The Ensigns of the Order of St. Andrew, which were presented to him, are esteem'd worth 16,000 Rubles. He has receiv'd, beside the ordinary Present of 8000 Rubles, and it is currently reported, and not without great Probability, that on the Ratification of the Treaty lately concluded, he will receive a farther Present of 9000 Rubles more, to which will be added some Jewels, a large Quantity of rich Furs, and some Chinese Tapestry, to a considerable Value. It is said that the Count de Rosenbergh, Minister from her Hungarian Majesty, will very speedily return Home; but the Dutch Ambassador, M. de Dieu, remains here at the Request of the Czarina; who was very graciously pleas'd to tell him, That tho' for certain Reasons of State she could not enter into the System which he recommended, yet, in regard to the Treaty of Commerce, and whatever else respect'd the States General, he should find her ready to give him signal Proofs of her sincere Friendship and Esteem.

Genoa, July 23. The Junction of the Army of Don Philip, with that under the Command of M. de Gages, was entirely completed on the 20th, and the next Day the Army began its March, in order to attack the Enemy. We are assur'd, that the Plan of Operations settled with the Royal Infant, consists in no more than forcing the Enemy to a Battle, in case they keep their Posts; or forming the Siege of Tortona without delay, if they should retreat. The Army of the Republic takes its full Share in these Operations, and actually marches with the Spaniards and Neapolitans, under the Command of the Marquis de Brignoles; it consists of 18,000 Men, well arm'd, well clothed, and in very high Spirits. As we are sensible enough that the King of Sardinia will use his utmost Endeavours to engage the English Squadron to attempt bombarding this City, we have taken all imaginable Precautions to render such a Design impracticable, having lined the whole Coast with Batteries; on all which, it is computed that we have mounted more than 300 Pieces of Brass Cannon, ready to slure our Enemies on their first Appearance.

P. S. We have this Moment received Advice, that the Army of the Infant Don Philip is advanced to Sezi, which is but three Leagues from Alexandria; the Count de Gages, on the other Hand, is advanced to Bosco, and is on the Point of breaking Ground before Tortona. General Count Schulemberg, who had encamped under the Walls of the last mentioned Place, is retired from thence, and has taken Post, for the present, behind the River Tanaro.

From the Head Quarters of General Schulemberg at Bassignano, dated July 19.

Yesterday we pass'd the Tanaro, and arriv'd at this Place, intending to regulate our future Motions by those of the Enemy; which, however, grow every Day more dark and impenetrable. Our Spies unanimously report, that they intend to form the Siege of Alexandria, and with them the Deserters agree; but our Generals are clearly of another Opinion, and believe rather, that their Design is to fall down thro' Piedmont; and to attempt once more the Siege of Coni; M. Maillebois having established a Bank at Genoa, draws from thence 500,000 Livres a Month for the Pay of his Army.

Extract of a Private Letter from Hamburgh, dated August 3, 1745.

I do not question, but before the Arrival of this, you will have heard from hence, that the Czarina has actually declared War against his Majesty of Denmark. But I hope you will do me the Justice to believe, that I would not have lost a Post in communicating to you a Piece of News of such Consequence. In short, Sir, be assur'd, this Intelligence is absolutely false, or, at least, premature, and owing to nothing but the Hastiness of some People's Tempers; who having heard at Petersburgh that it was resolv'd to recover, for the Imperial Prince, the Duchy of Sleswick, even at the Expence of a War with Denmark, if it could be had no other Way, immediately apprehended that a Declaration of War was in the Press; which made so strong an Impression on their Fancies, that some of them wrote positively they had seen it; which was enough to give the utmost Currency to the Report of a War here, and that the King of Denmark had apply'd to his Britannick Majesty for an English Squadron to be sent immediately into the Baltic, for the Preservation of his Dominion. I must own all this made no Sort of Impression on me; and that, how confident soever People might be of the Reality of these Facts, it was most clearly my Sentiment there was nothing in them. I wrote, however, to a Friend of mine for Information, and he has enabled me to write you some curious Facts.

The Russian Ministry well remembering how much under the two last Reigns they were subject to the Power of Strangers, are determin'd to secure themselves from that Misfortune, in case of her present Imperial Majesty's Decease; by making the Interest of the House of Holstein coincide exactly with that of the Russian Empire; by procuring Dominions for every Branch of it, and uniting them all by a Kind of Family Treaty, which shall embark the whole Force of their several States in the maintaining the Common Cause. It was with this View that a new Alliance was negotiated with Sweden, which is now concluded, and is to be the Basis of this mighty Fabrick. The French pretend to favour the Designs of the Russians in this Affair, but, undoubtedly, with a sinister View; since nothing can be more repugnant to the Maxims of their Policy, than raising up, in this manner, a new Power in the North, no way inferior to either the House of Austria, or to that of Bourbon; but, perhaps, they may see some immediate and necessary Advantages that may be deriv'd from them, which may incline them to lay hold of these, and leave the rest to Chance or Providence; hoping that new Expedients will be always found to ward off new Dangers. At least, it is most evident, that the French Ministers in every Court of Europe profess themselves Friends to the House of Holstein.

By this new System, it is given out, Advantage will be taken of the present Troubles in Europ, to give every Thing in the North a new Turn. The Crown of Sweden is to recover all the Territories she possid'd in Germany, without Exception. His Imperial Highness is to take back again from the Danes his Duchy of Sleswick; and the Court of Poland is to release a Courland from its Homage, in Favour of the Prince of Zerbst. By this Means, the Germans will naturally return to that Dependency which they formerly had on the Northern Courts, and the Grand Duke of Muscovy, when he comes to be Emperor of Russia, will, in Conjunction with his Uncle the King of Sweden, establish such a Confidence in them, as was formerly repoy'd by the Princes and States in Gustavus Adolphus. Thus, in pursuit of this extraordinary Measure, an Express has been sent to the Court of Copenhagen, with Dispatches containing the Reasons why his Royal and Imperial Highness has been so long in demanding Sleswick; and the Resolution of her Czarish Majesty to support him in his Pretensions thereon, is certain; and that this has greatly alarm'd the Danish Ministry, is very true; but that the Czarina has declar'd War against that Prince, or propos'd speedily to do it, is absurd, and improbable; but nevertheless, that this may come to pass in Time, is highly so, as I shall shew you another Time.

Frankfort, August 4. The French Army remains encamped at Oggersheim; and it is thought the Army of the Grand Duke will remain some Days longer upon the Neckar; but his Irregular Troops have pass'd that River, and extend themselves along the Rhine as far as Detrenheim. The Baron de Kesselstadt, First Ambassador from the Elector of Men z, arriv'd here Yesterday in the Evening; and within the Compass of this, and the succeeding Week, we expect the Ambassadors of the rest of the Electors. A Report prevail'd, that her Majesty the Queen of Hungary will very speedily come to Wurtzburg, and there attend the Reas's of the Dyot of El Etion.

Hanover, August 6. Yesterday Morning arriv'd the Baggage of Prince William of Hesse, but his Serene Highness did not arrive till about Eight in the Evening. This Morning he went to pay his Compliments to his Majesty at Herrenhausen, where he dined with the King. Count Fleming is returned hither from Dresden, and the Baron de Erthal is actually returned to Franchfort.

Brussels, August 6. Yesterday a great Council of War was held at the Head Quarters of his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland, but the Resolution taken therein is kept Secret; so that we are not able to say whether the Army will continue to retire towards Antwerp, or wait for the Enemy in its present Camp. The French have actually traced Ground for a Camp near Grimberguen, on the Left of the Canal of Vivorden. We are inform'd that the French King intends to take up his Quarters at the Abby of Afflighem. This Morning the Count de Kaunitz received Advice that Dendermond was invest'd by the Enemy. The French have actually demolish'd all the Fortifications of Qudenard.

Extract of a Letter from the Hague, dated August 10.

There is a Letter handed about here from Paris, in which it is said, that the young Chevalier embark'd at Port St. Lazarus in Bretagne, on board a small Frigate of 18 Guns, having with him 50 or 60 Persons, among whom were the Duke of Athol, M. de M'Donald and Kelly, and several other Scotch and Irish; that in the Height of the Island of Belleisle they found a French Man of War, called the Elizabeth, of 66 Guns, in Company with which they sail'd for Scotland; that on the 20th the Elizabeth was attacked by the Lion, Capt. Brett; and that while they were engag'd, the Frigate sheer'd off; that the Elizabeth was since returned to Brest in a dreadful Condition, having lost her Captain and 64 Men kill'd, and 136 dangerously wounded. That there was on board this Ship 400,000l. Sterling, and Arms for several Thousand Men. That at his Departure the young Chevalier dispatched five Couriers, one to the King in Flanders, one to his Father at Rome, one to Paris, one to the Duke of Ormond at Avignon, and one to the Earl Marshal, with several other Particulars of the same Kind.

L O N D O N.

Count Lowendahl, with 32,000 French Troops, have actually invest'd Offend, and begun to fire upon it on the 9th Instant. N. S. Count Chanclos, who is the Governor of that important Place, has made all the necessary Preparations for a good Defence, and will certainly defend it to the last Extremity.

They write from Amsterdam, that 15 of their East India Men are safely arriv'd from Ceylon, Suravia, and the other Settlements, very richly laden. They took the Precaution, it seems, to come North about, apprehending there might be a War with France.

We learn by private Letters from Berlin, that the Negotiation with the Court of Vienna is entirely broken off, his Prussian Majesty having publicly declared, he found that Court more inclined to sacrifice the Netherlands to France, than allow him to keep Silesia.

The Neptune Privateer of Dartmouth, is taken by the French, and carried into Port Louis.

The Whitehaven, Foster, from Maryland for London, is taken, and carried into Brest.

On Thursday last died, at his House at Southgate, Mr. Samuel Hawell, a very eminent Merchant, and one of the Governors of the London Assurance; a Gentleman of great Ability and Integrity, ever ready to do any good Office in his Power.

A few Days ago Mr. Timothy Ward, an eminent Italian Merchant in Spital Fields, was married to Miss Molly Grace, Daughter of Mr. Grace, a Wholesale Linen Draper in St. Martins le Grand; an agreeable young Lady, with a considerable Fortune.

This Day the Princess Amelia and Caroline will hunt a Stag in Windsor Forest.

Yesterday Morning, about Seven o'Clock, a Fire broke out in a Two-pair of Stairs Room at an Orange Merchants in Botolph-lane, near Billingsgate; which did considerable Damage to the said House and Goods, before it could be extinguished.

This Day the Right Hon. the Lord Chancellor will hold the Fourth and last General Seal at Lincoln's-Inn Hall, after Trinity Term.

The Silver Arrow which was shot for at Harrow on the Hill last Thursday, was won by the Son of one Mr. Dandy.

The Beginning of next Week Col. Lascelles, and several other Officers, will set out for Scotland.

The Proprietors of the Original Raisin-Brandy Warehouse, are removed from next Door to the Golden Key, to the Sign of the Golden Anchor on the opposite Side of the Way, near St. Paul's Church-Yard, in Watling Street. They are determined to keep up their Brandy to its usual Goodness, which has withstood for these Ten Years past, the various Contrivances in Opposition to it, both under the same, and other Names; and they will accommodate those Persons that it don't suit to take Five Gallons, with Two Gallons and a Half, except they should require it to be sent to any of the Out-Parts of the Town.

V. The HISTORY of the WORLD. By Sir WALTER RALEIGH, Knt. The Eleventh Edition. In Two Volumes Folio, printed from a Copy revised by the Author; with his Effigies, from an original Painting, curiously engraved by Mr. VERTUE.

To which is prefixed the LIFE of the Author, newly compiled from Materials more ample and authentic than have yet been published. By Mr. OLDYS.

Sir WALTER RALEIGH's History of the World is a Work of so vast a Compass, such endless Variety, that no Genius, but one adventurous at his own, durst have undertaken that great Design. I do not apprehend any great Difficulty in collecting and common-placing an Universal History from the whole Body of Historians; that is nothing but mechanic Labour. But to digest the several Authors in his Mind, to take in all their Majesty, Strength, and Beauty, to raise the Spirit of meaner Historians, and to equal all the Excellencies of the best, is Sir Walter's peculiar Praise. His Style is the most perfect, the happiest, and most beautiful, of the Age he wrote in; majestic, clear, and manly; and he appears every where so superior, rather than unequal to his Subject, that the Spirit of Rome and Athens seems to be breathed into his Work.

SCHWANBERG'S LIQUID-SHELL,

To be DEFENDED upon in the GRAVEL and STONE.

THE Rev. Dr. HALES, and others, have demonstrated by various Experiments, That the Virtues of Mrs. Stevens's Medicine for the GRAVEL and STONE, depend upon the SALTS of Lime in the Alicant Soap, and calcin'd Shells; but its enormous Dose renders it so nauseous, that it is almost impossible to take it in a manner sufficient to answer any good End. This, then, will inform such unhappy Persons who are afflicted with the GRAVEL and STONE, That M. SCHWANBERG, a learned and ingenious Gentleman, well versed in the most abstruse Operations of Chymistry, has a Method of Liquifying calcin'd Shells, so as to become limpid as Rock-water, yet not corrosive. They give almost immediate Relief in the most violent Pains of the GRAVEL, and, if duly persisted in, will, in time, bid fair for dissolving a Stone in the Urinary Passages, when too large to pass off otherwise. They may be depended on in the Wind-Colic, and all Kind of Flatulences; and, where an Alcatr is wanted, will answer the desired End. A Child may take them in the Mouth, in Griping, Fevers, and Uneasinesses, which Children are subject to, from Acidities, the known Cause of most of their Disorders.

It is remarkable, That those who take them for the STONE, have a Sediment in their Urine resembling powdered Chalk: Now, that this Sediment is a Portion of the Stone dissolved, is evident from an Experiment in the Urine of every one to make; for, put an human Strain, form'd in the Urinary Passages, into a Vial of the LIQUID-SHELL, and it will gradually dissolve into a White Powder, exactly resembling that in the Urine of Persons who take it as a Medicine for the Stone, and this in an Heat not greater than that of the Body, yet, at the same time, not in the least affect a human Hair put therein; and, which surprisingly will, upon the Addition of an Acid, be instantly converted into a Snow-white Powder.

To be had of the Proprietor W. BAKER, at his House in Helmet-Court, near Katherine-street in the Strand; and, by his Appointment, of R. LEE, Stationer, under the Statuary's, facing Serjeants Inn in Fleet street; and of John Newbery, at the Golden Hall in Castle Alley, near the Royal Exchange, London; or, at his Printing-Office in Reading, at 1s. 6d. the small Vial.

The Dose is from 10 Drops to 30, and not unpleasant.

An Infallible CURE

For Barrenness in Women, and Impotency in Men,

By Superlative ENLIVENING DROPS;

Which in a few Days render both Sexes Prolific in a most wonderful Manner.

HUNDREDS of Ladies who were deem'd incapable of bearing Children, have immediately conceived after taking three or four Doses of them only; and vast Numbers of GENTLEMEN by taking them, have presently become capable of propagating their Species, who before, thro' either Imbecility or Age, imagin'd it impossible.

They almost instantly renovate the vital Ferment of the Blood and Juices, rectify the languid State of all the Fluids, restore, fortify, and increase the Spirits, invigorate the Nerves, restore juvenile Warmth, and cause a sparkling Gladness and ardent Courage to flow in the Heart, and expand itself thro' the whole human System, so as sensibly to enliven and invigorate all the animal Faculties, and corroborate or strengthen the whole Body, as well as the Power appropriated to Generation, and do infallibly cure Barrenness in one Sex, and Impotency in the other, from what Causesoever proceeding, as Thousands have experienced.

They are also pleasant to take, are Cordial to the Stomach, create an Appetite, and procure a good Digestion, beyond any thing known in the World. And are to be had only at MR. RADFORD's Toy-shop, at the Rose and Crown against St. Clement's Church-Yard, in the Strand, Price 5s. the Bottle, with Directions.
